v.

Notice of Appeal
By KATE BARKMAN, Clerk
Dep. Clerk

Notice is hereby given that the Plaintiff in this matter, Amro Elensari, hereby appeals the decision entered in this matter on July 15, 2019 to the Third Circuit Court of Appeals for the following reason:

- The court believes the claim in this matter to be a 1st or 5th Amendment claim (free speech)
- When in reality it is a 14th Amendment equal protection / discrimination case where the "note" is a ~~prive facie~~ case of discrimination

~~Dismissal was inappropriate.~~ Thank You.

To The Court:

No: 19-3006

My apologies for the misunderstanding.

I thought - the mute of a player -
- for no reason -
- unequal to others -

self evidently presented a 'prima facie' case of discrimination / unequal treatment in violation of the 14th Amendment which applies to business as well - see Heart of Atlanta Motel (1975)

Now, this is equal protection law 101 -

But, I don't expect you to be an expert or specialized in this area - because it's rare.

Nonetheless, since the case is dismissed with prejudice, I have no choice but to appeal.

I hope, however, that I can hold a little bit more credibility in this court in the future.

Thank you.

All the best
